

The Alice in Wonderland Challenge

...she came upon a low

curtain she had not noticed before, and behind it was a little door about fifteen inches high: she tried the little golden key in the lock, and to her great delight it fitted ...she came upon a low curtain she had not noticed before, and behind it was a little door about fifteen inches high: she tried the little golden key in the lock, and to her great delight it fitted

What did Alice find behind the door?

As she opened the door, she found herself...

There was a table set out under a tree in front of the house, and the March Hare and the Hatter were having tea at it: a Dormouse was sitting between them, fast asleep, and the other two were using it as a cushion, resting their elbows on it and talking over its head.

If I were to have a tea party, I...

For starters, ...

Additionally, ...

Finally, ...

There was a table set out under a tree in front of the house, and the March Hare and the Hatter were having tea at it: a Dormouse was sitting between them, fast asleep, and the other two were using it as a cushion, resting their elbows on it and talking over its head.

She was a little startled by seeing the Cheshire Cat...
...“All right,” said the cat, and it vanished quite slowly, beginning with the end of the tail and ending with the grin, which remained for some time after the rest of it had gone.

She was a little startled by seeing the Cheshire Cat...

What is the back story of the Cheshire Cat?

How did it gain its ability to disappear? Why does its grin remain?

...“All right,”
said the cat,
and it vanished
quite slowly,
beginning with
the end of the tail and ending
with the grin,
which remained
for some time
after the rest of
it had gone.

