

| | | | |
|--|--|---|---|
| 6th Form Preparation work for Sociology  |  Read the ‘Good House Wife’s Guide’ article from 1955 about how a wife should treat her husband. Can you identify any similarities and differences with households today? What do you think of the rules women were encouraged to follow? Good House Wife’s Guide Inner Strength Zone article Time: 30 mins |  Listen to this podcast episode. Professor Carolyn Jackson talks about her famous research on lads and ladettes and the issue of lad culture in universities. We will discuss this research in the Youth Cultures topic. Interview with Professor Carolyn Jackson The Sociology Show podcast Time: 30 mins |  Listen to this podcast episode. Professor Louise Archer talks about her research into education and inequality. This will be useful for the Education topic. Interview with Professor Louise Archer The Sociology Show podcast Time: 30 mins |
|  Research Folk Devils and Moral Panics (Cohen 1972). How were the mods and rockers involved? Write a summary explaining what happened. Folk Devils and Moral Panics info Tutor2u website Folk Devils and Moral Panics video YouTube video Time: 45 mins |  Listen to this podcast episode. Dr Lisa McKenzie talks about the issue of social class and inequality. Interview with Dr Lisa McKenzie The Sociology Show podcast Time: 45 mins |  Watch the TED talk. Sir Ken Robinson makes an entertaining and profoundly moving case for creating an education system that nurtures (rather than undermines) creativity. TED Talks – Sir Ken Robinson YouTube video Time: 20 mins |  Research James Patrick in “A Glasgow Gang Observed”. What happened during the study? What research method did Patrick use? Were there any ethical issues? Write a summary explaining what happened. A Glasgow Gang Observed WJEC resource Time: 45 mins |
|  Watch the Stanford Prison Experiment documentary. In 1971, 24 male students are selected to take on randomly assigned roles of prisoners. Think about the effects of this research experiment, and uncover any ethical issues you think may be happening. The Stanford Prison Experiment YouTube video Time: 30 mins |  Watch an episode of ‘An Idiot Abroad’ with Karl Pilkington and Ricky Gervais. Karl is sent on different trips all across the world to explore other cultures and heritage. What research method is used? Are there any ethical issues? An Idiot Abroad: China YouTube video Time: 45 mins |  Listen to this podcast episode. Dr Sam Friedman talks about his research into social mobility, the glass ceiling and the myth of meritocracy. Interview with Dr Sam Friedman The Sociology Show podcast Time: 30 mins |  Read this Introduction to Social Class. This will help you to develop your understanding of the concept ready to start A Level Sociology. What social class are you? Introduction to Social Class Revise Sociology website Time: 30 mins |