Proceed to Appeal

An appeal may result in a grade moving down, up or staying the same. The original grade cannot be reinstated in any circumstances, even if the application was made in error. Signing this form is your written consent to proceed to appeal.

Grounds of Appeal

An application for an appeal may be submitted on one or more of the following grounds:

The school or college made an administrative error in the centre assessment grades or rank order information submitted.
Exceptional circumstances in which using the dataset specified by the regulators' might be the wrong data
WJEC did not apply its standardisation or appeals procedures consistently, or the procedures were not followed properly and fairly
WJEC used an incorrect data set for the purposes of statistical standardisation or introduced an error into the data set
WJEC made an administrative error in issuing a result
